

Born in Belgrade where she graduated elementary and secondary music school "Mokranjac" in the class of professor Bodin Starčević. At the Faculty of Music (Belgrade, Serbia) she graduated flute in the class of professor Ljubiša Jovanović. She studied at the prestigious "Accademia Musicale Chigiana" in the Siena (Italy) with eminent flutists such as Aurele Nicolet, Parick Gallois, Emmanuel Pahud, Michel Debost and Irena Grafenauer.

She is the winner of numerous first prizes at National and other competitions for music students. She started performing concerts during her studies at the faculty, and in 1997 she became a member of UMUS (Serbian Association of Music Artists). She has given a large number of solo concerts both in the country and abroad, but also playing in various chamber ensembles.

As a soloist, she performed with the Belgrade Philharmonic Orchestra, the RTS Symphony Orchestra, the Serbian Military Symphony Orchestra, the String Orchestra of School for Musical Talents in Čuprija (Serbia), performing Bach, Vivaldi, Mozart, Borncio and Grieg. She also presented herself to the audience at many music festivals, such as: BEMUS, "The Power of the Flute", "Kalemegdan Twilight", "Days of Mokranjac".

In addition to a large repertoire for flute, which includes works from different eras from baroque to contemporary music, she also tried her hand at other music genres such as jazz, blues, flamenco... She recorded for radio and television.